Dunmorean of the Month: LeeAnn Perry

By Steve Svetovich

Dunmore native LeeAnn Perry always knew she wanted to help children.

That is her primary motivation in life.

And soon she will be opening up her third children's learning center.

LeeAnn, 51, a 1987 Dunmore High School graduate, received a bachelor of science degree in early childhood education from Keystone College in 2008 and then earned a Pennsylvania Director's Credential. She is working towards a master's degree in education.

She is currently the owner of Perry's Academy of Learning Centers, located at both 104 and 114 Prospect St., Dunmore.

And she is about to own and operate a third Perry's Academy of Learning Center at the site where Heil's Place used to be located, on the corner of Wheeler Avenue and Ash Street, Scranton.

LeeAnn bought the building, had it torn down, and will build on the site through the help of her husband John, a prominent Dunmore

After 27 years of providing a magic show for the students of Dunmore and Saint Mary's Elementary Centers, the Dunmore Lions Club had to cancel this year due to the COVID pandemic. Club members and school administrators discussed alternatives and came up with a creative idea to distribute personal protective equipment (PPE) and Halloween candy to each student and teacher. Bottom row, from left are: Emily Coleman, Sofia Newman and Jack Davis. Second row: Maxon Art and Mathew Mursch. Top row: Mary Elizabeth Shattin, St. Mary's principal; DLC Event Chairman, Sam Sebastianelli Sr., DLC event chairman; Jim Aita, DLC president; Leo Wentline, DLC member, and Renee Iezzi, school nurse.

Athlete of the Month...

Dunmore Bucks senior Cristian Buckley, at right, has rushed for over 1,000 yards, including 208 in last Friday's rout of Riverside, 57-15. The tailback has helped lead the Bucks to the state playoffs.

Buckley is our featured Athlete of the Month for November. See related stories on Pages 16 & 17

PennDOT Innovations Challenge

The Pennsylvania Department of Transportation (PennDOT) announced that students in grades 9-12 are invited to participate in the fourth annual PennDOT Innovations Challenge, which encourages students to use their problem-solving, creative and strategic-thinking abilities to solve real-world transportation challenges in a competition among their peers.

This year's Innovations Challenge asks students to develop an innovative and implementable solution that helps address Pennsylvania's transportation revenue shortfall by identifying potential new funding streams, aside from additional gas taxes, tolls or mileage-based user fees, to help ensure adequate transportation funding for the future.

The Innovations Challenge is open to all students in grades 9-12, regardless of their school's learning model. PennDOT is directly responsible for nearly 40,000 miles of highway and roughly 25,000 bridges, roughly equal to the state-maintained road systems of New York, New Jersey, and all the New England states combined.

Doin' Dunmore

With Steve Svetovich

Passing the torch shows the full circle of life

He was a co-founder of the Scranton Red Sox summer team and served as its president.

The older scribe also helped the kid pick up some extra summer cash as an official scorer for the Scranton Tavern League.

When the kid turned 18, the long time sports editor gave him a part time role as a "stringer" for the Scranton Times covering and writing about local football games. Thanks to the master scribe, the cub reporter was able to get a byline for some of his published stories.

Now the kid was pounding out stories on an old type writer in a dingy newsroom.

The long time sports editor tried to get the kid a full time job in the newsroom of the sports department, but the higher ups had other plans and it wasn't meant to be.

So the kid took a job in a local hospital, continued to write freelance sports stories and eventually ended up writing for the competing local newspaper, The Scranton Tribune, until it folded in 1989.

The kid, now a young man, went back to college to become an occupational therapist while working in a local nursing home, but continued to write, latching on to a new Dunmore newspaper.

And he maintained a friendship with that old school sports editor who had left his newspaper and was now covering sports as a sportscaster for a local radio station.

The old school sports writer eventually became involved as president for many years of the local chapter for Northeast PA Sports Hall of Fame.

And the young scribe began covering the annual Hall of Fame induction events for him, with the stories published in the Dunmore newspaper, The Dunmorean, run by former Scranton Tribune editor/reporter, John Hart.

As time went by, the older scribe turned over the reins to Bob Walsh who is now president of the Northeastern Chapter of the PA Sports Hall of Fame.

About a decade ago, the aging but still mentally sharp scribe called his younger student of journalism, now in mid life, and asked if he would like to someday be a part of the committee for the Northeastern Chapter of the PA Sports Hall of Fame.

"We are getting up in years and we need some younger, but experienced guys with fresh ideas," he said.

So, the idea was implanted.

And just last year the former cub scribe, now older, was asked by Walsh to join the committee that ironically Valonis, the former Scranton Red Sox coach and manager, serves on as one of the committee members.

And just a few months after the scribe proudly joined this committee, his former journalism mentor and the past president of the committee, John McCormick died. He passed away this past Oct. 2 just a couple weeks shy of his 90th birthday.

And in his honor, this scribe, will proudly continue to serve on the committee for the Northeastern Chapter of the Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame.

And so goes the circle of life.

Thank you Mr. McCormick, for providing this scribe with a beginning.

(Editor's note: John McCormick was a Korean War veteran who served with the Seventh Army, V Corps in Germany. He received the Commissioner of Baseball Award for his contributions to college baseball, the Scranton Wilkes-Barre Red Barons Media Award, Catholic League Coaches' Association Service Award, 1973 University of Scranton Journalism Award, 1973 ACBL Media Award, 1982 ACBL Service Award, University of Scranton Media Award, PIAA Service Award for contributions to high school sports.

He was inducted into the University of Scranton Athletics Wall of Fame, received the PA Sports Hall of Fame Meritorious Award and the Northeast PA Sports Hall of Fame Service Award.

Past president for many years of the Northeastern Chapter of the PA Sports Hall of Fame, he also served as Regional Vice-President of the State Sports Hall of Fame and as president of the Babe Ruth Senior League. He was a committee member of the University of Scranton Wall of Fame.)

The circle of life has some interesting bounces.

There was a 16-year-old kid back in the day who had a love of sports, baseball in particular, and journalism.

Somehow the word got out to an old school scribe about the kid's yearning.

The old school scribe pounded out his sports stories on an old school typewriter in a dingy newsroom for The Scranton Times. He was the man about town when I came to local sports.

In those days, the only local sports guy who could compare to him was Dunmore's Guy Valvano.

He was so old school that he looked like a news man who popped right out of a black and white film, "The Paper."

And he had a presence at Dunmore's Schautz Stadium which in the early to late 70's was the place to watch a summer baseball game. After all, the Scranton Red Sox of the old Atlantic Collegiate Baseball League (ACBL) played an exciting brand of baseball. And the crowd was always buzzing, old-school style.

The old school scribe was John McCormick, the sports editor of the Scranton Times at the time. And he played the part well.

He heard about this young kid who loved sports and wanted to write. So he gave the kid a summer job as team statistician and official scorer for the Scranton Red Sox of the ACBL.

After the kid became acclimated to the job, even traveling with the team, the old school scribe even let the kid submit a few of the game stories along with box scores to the two local newspapers in town. It was a great learning experience for the kid who marveled at the managing and coaching of local legends Gary Ruby, Jerry Valonis and the late Bill Howerton.

And what a group of talented collegiate players such as Phil and Bob Rossi, Al Ottinger, Johnny DeRichie, Rich Piger, Joe Carroll, Jerry Dempsey, Bob Francis, John DiVincenzo, Dean Rick, Ken "Bovine" Veenema and Rick Lancelotti who later played for the San Diego Padres and San Francisco Giants.

Dr. Stanley Chickson, an older gentleman, was always there too. He threw silver dollars out at players who homered, made nice fielding plays or had a clutch hit.

The kid learned a bit about the media and he had a pretty good tutor.

And despite his many duties as a sports editor, McCormick, old-school style puffing away on a cigar with a beanie type cap, was there for every game at Schautz.

"We hope to break ground on the site of the 5,000 square foot facility next year," she said. LeeAnn used to work for the Dunmore School District, but always knew she wanted to work with children so she started a day care center at home and it built from there. Today there is a long waiting list for her two current centers.

"She is busy operating two centers on the same street and soon will be operating a third where Heil's Place used to be," said Valerie Amico, Dunmore. "She is well known in the community and has a waiting list.

"There is so much to say about this wonderful, petite, giving lady."

LeeAnn and her husband John have three children: Marla Decker, R.N., 33, married to Dr. Robert Decker, MD; Dr. Taylor Perry, D.C., married to Dr. Jack McWilliams, D.C.; and John Perry, 23, a recent University of Scranton Business Management graduate who now works for his dad's contracting business.

The couple has two grandchildren: Robbie, 4, and Olivia, 2, children of Marla and Robert Decker.

"I always loved children, so I decided to start a day care center at my house," said LeeAnn. "Ever since I was a teenager, I wanted to work with young children. I knew this is what I wanted, so I did it.

Eventually, it grew and continued to grow.

"I do a lot of the front end work now. I have a great staff of 28. We make sure everything is running well and above standards. The classrooms and curriculum are always updated and we employ administrative directors."

LeeAnn worked as a classroom assistant for special education in the Dunmore School District while attending Keystone in a Weekender program.

"I was working full time, managing a family and going to school on weekends," she said. "It was hard, but I did it. I was 38 when I graduated. It was well worth it."

LeeAnn said she enjoys cooking and running in her spare time. "I love to cook," she said. "It is very relaxing for me."

She tries to give back to the community by serving children. "We try to keep it personal with the families."

LeeAnn said she might not stop yet with a third learning center in the making. "Who knows? We might keep going after we get the third center running."

And it is the children who keep her motivated.

"Children are healers," she said. "The laughter of children is one of the most beautiful sounds in the world."

Jenny Nguyen, a senior Multimedia Communication major at Marywood, was recently awarded first place for her short documentary, "Saigon's Daughter," at the 2020 College Media Association's (CMA) Film Festival.

The documentary features the story of Ms. Nguyen's mother, Thao Thi Pham, and her journey from Vietnam to America in search for a better life. Mrs. Pham was born during the start of the Vietnam War. She and her eight siblings survived by selling livestock. Jenny's uncle came to America first and earned enough money for the rest of the family to safely get to the United States. The six-minute documentary, "Saigon's Daughter," follows her mother's entire life journey.

Jenny works as a multimedia assistant at The Wood Word, Marywood University's student-run electronic newspaper. She is a member of TV Marywood, Public Relations Student Society of America (PRSSA), the Society of Collegiate Journalists (SCJ), and she works as a wedding videographer and editor—work that she will continue following graduation.

November Artist of Month: Maria Augelli Grudeski

By Maria Augelli
Grudeski

Most of us "featured artists" now are on our second profile here at The Hub. Kudos to Dolly Michalczyk for making this happen, as her organizational skills and goodwill are responsible for this monthly feature in The Dunmorean.

My array of paintings in the photo are centered around holidays, including a fall pumpkin, Christmas tree, Easter egg, a flag representing patriotic days, my featured painting of a Holiday door, and Valentine hearts which represent my favorite holiday.

In the fall of 2014 I realized a beautifully ornate Christmas card and went with it as my holiday painting. What a dream! Fast forward to spring of 2015--I will still painting "the door."

Jill Swersie, our supportive art instructor, motivated me to complete the door. Her famous saying is "There are no mistakes in art--you can paint over oils." Her words still resonate with me.

Summer 2015 saw the final completion of the painting, although sometimes I still wonder. How about painting snow in 95 degree weather? The painting would be ready for our Fall Art Show that year, one of many social gatherings we have as an art class. They are so much fun.

Together, we celebrate December holidays with superb entertainment, since we are talented musicians and vocalists as well. Jill is also kind enough to open her inviting Pocono home, letting us gather at her domain for our annual barbeque.

Some of our paintings are available for purchase by contacting the Dunmore Activity Hub directed by Allison Boga. The price is right to buy one of our paintings! We also thank Allison for her dedication!

My classmate and friend Marie Barbuti has been a support in my artistry, giving so many helpful art tips.

Attending oil painting classes at the Hub has many dimensions. We have realized great friendships and social circles. The hub offers myriad activities year-round, including winter walking in the gym, yoga, knitting, sketching, ballroom dancing, and bus trips.

Pies a perfect Thanksgiving dessert

What a year 2020 has been!!! As I'm contemplating Thanksgiving, and listening to the evening news, I'm wondering if it will be a «traditional family» Thanksgiving or «Covid» Thanksgiving. Cautions are already being issued against large family gatherings for Thanksgiving.

One thing I know for sure...even if there are small family gatherings, the meal will end with what I call a "Pie Fest."

Pies seem to be the favorite dessert to close out the evening of celebration. Other years I have served Cranberry Refrigerator Dessert, Apple Pie, Lemon Lush, Blueberry Pie and Mincemeat Pie. However, this year I'm already working on a new pie menu.

Yes, you can make your own pie crust, however, for testing sake, I use Pillsbury Refrigerated Pie Crusts. Sandra Lee, author of Semi-Homemade Series, urges people to use these pie crusts, but brush them with melted butter and sprinkle with sugar before pre-baking them for a "more homemade" taste. Works for me. So here are the recipes I'm working with for the upcoming 2020 Pie Fest:

SUGAR CREAM PIE

1/4 cup butter
2 1/4 cups heavy cream
1/4 cup cornstarch
3/4 cup sugar
1 tsp. vanilla

In medium saucepan add butter and whipping cream. Heat over medium heat and whisk constantly. Once butter is melted, add cornstarch and sugar. Continue whisking until mixture thickens. Once filling begins to boil, allow to boil for 1 full minute. It should be the consistency of pudding. Remove from heat. Add vanilla and pour into baked pie crust, which has been cooled. Refrigerate.

BUTTER PECAN PUMPKIN PIE

1 quart butter pecan ice cream, softened
1 - 9" pastry shell, baked and cooled
1 cup canned pumpkin
1/2 cup sugar
1/4 tsp. each ground cinnamon, and nutmeg
1 cup heavy whipping cream, whipped
1/2 cup chocolate ice cream topping (optional)

Cheryl's Cuisine

By Cheryl Radkiewicz

Spread ice cream into baked, cooled pie crust; freeze for 2 hours or until firm. In small bowl, combine pumpkin, sugar, cinnamon and nutmeg; fold in whipped cream. Spread over ice cream. Cover and freeze for 2 hours or until firm. May be frozen for up to 1 month. Remove from freezer 15 minutes before slicing. Drizzle with chocolate ice cream topping, if desired.

SWEETIE PIE

Pastry for single-crust pie

1 cup graham cracker crumbs
1/4 cup butter, melted
1 cup finely chopped pecans
1 1/2 cups milk chocolate pieces or semisweet chocolate pieces (I use milk chocolate)
1 cup flaked coconut
1 cup butterscotch-flavored pieces
1 cup pecan halves
1-14 oz. can sweetened condensed milk

Line a 9" pie plate with pastry. Make a double thickness of foil and line pastry. Bake in preheated 375 ° oven for 10 minutes. Remove foil. Cool slightly on wire rack. Meanwhile in small bowl, combine cracker crumbs and melted butter; toss to mix well. Spread cracker mixture evenly over bottom of partially baked pie crust. Over the cracker mixture, evenly layer finely chopped pecans, 1 cup of chocolate pieces, the coconut, butterscotch pieces, the remaining chocolate pieces and pecan halves. Gently pour condensed milk over entire pie. Bake in 375 ° oven about 30 minutes or until condensed milk turns golden brown. Cool on wire rack for at least 1 hour. Cover and refrigerate.

HARVEST PIE

Pastry for single pie crust
1/2 cup butter, softened
1/2 cup granulated sugar
1/2 cup packed brown sugar
2/3 cup all-purpose flour
1 cup chopped walnuts

1/2 cup granulated sugar
2 Tbsp. all-purpose flour
1 tsp. ground cinnamon
1 tsp. vanilla
1/2 tsp. finely shredded orange peel
1/8 tsp. ground nutmeg
5 medium Jonathan apples or other cooking apples, peeled, cored and sliced (about 5 cups)
3 Tbsp. orange juice
1 1/2 cups fresh or frozen cranberries

Prepare pie crust and line 9" pie plate. For topping: In medium mixing bowl, beat butter with electric mixer on medium to high speed for 30 seconds. Add 1/2 cup granulated sugar and 1/2 cup brown sugar. Beat until well combined. Beat in 2/3 cup flour.

Mixture will be crumbly. Stir in walnuts and set aside.

For filling: In small bowl combine 1/2 cup granulated sugar, 2 Tbsp. flour, cinnamon, vanilla, orange peel and nutmeg. Set aside. In large bowl, sprinkle apples with orange juice. Add sugar-cinnamon mixture and cranberries. Gently toss until coated. Transfer apple mixture into pastry-lined pie plate. Sprinkle topping over apple mixture, mounding high (topping will be generous). To prevent overbrowning, loosely cover pie with foil. Place in shallow baking pan as it may drip over. Bake in preheated 375° oven for 40 minutes. Remove foil and bake 20-25 minutes more or until fruit is tender and filling bubbly. Cool on wire rack.

BOURBON PUMPKIN PIE

Pastry dough for single 9-10" pie plate
1-15 oz. can pure pumpkin
1 cup heavy cream
1/2 cup sour cream
2 large eggs
3/4 cup sugar
4 Tbsp. bourbon
1 tsp. ground cinnamon
3/4 tsp. ground ginger
1/4 tsp. ground allspice
1/4 tsp. salt

Line pie plate with pastry dough. Lightly prick all over with a fork. Chill at least 30 minutes. Preheat oven to 375° with rack in middle of oven. Line shell with foil. UNICO pasta dinner fundraiser planned on Nov. 22 for charities

Dunmore's Keystone Chapter UNICO conducted its October dinner meeting at the new Colarusso's Coal Fire Pizza in Dickson City, formerly Al Mia Amore.

Also discussed was Keystone's upcoming Pasta Dinner fund-raiser for local charities and scholarships. Dinner will be available for take-out or dine-in at Villa Maria, 1610 Washburn Street, West Scranton, on Sunday, Nov. 22, from 11:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. and includes penne pasta, meatballs, salad, bread, and cake for dessert.

Dunmore senior Cristian Buckley totals over 1,000 yards this season

By Steve Svetovich

Dunmore senior tailback Cristian Buckley is making the most of a short season.

With the regular season shortened to five games due to COVID-19, the senior stalwart totaled over 1,000 rushing yards in just five regular season games en route to Dunmore capturing a seventh consecutive District 2 title.

Cristian, 18, rushed for 208 yards on 18 carries, including a 66-yard touchdown run with 29 seconds left in the first half that broke a 15-15 tie in Dunmore's 57-15 route over Riverside Friday, October 30, at Dunmore.

With Lackawanna Trail's loss the following day to Old Forge, Dunmore earned the District 2 Class 2A title and a trip to the state playoffs.

Cristian rushed for an astounding 313 yards in Dunmore's first win over Wallenpaupack. He also rushed for 212 yards in the Bucks win over Mid Valley, giving the senior stalwart three games of over 200 yards rushing.

Son of Connie and Michael Buckley, Cristian said he is hopeful of playing Division I college football. He applied to Bryant University in Rhode Island where he hopes to be accepted, play football and study business management.

The star tailback said he has learned a lot from Dunmore head football coach Kevin McHale. "He teaches us not only about football, but about life and life lessons," said Cristian. "He teaches us how to overcome adversity and never give up."

Cristian said his parents also teach him to never give up.

The quick, explosive back has six touchdowns, five rushing and one receiving, this season. He now has over 3,000 career rushing yards.

"It was great getting to 1,000 yards in a five game season," he said. "It was my first year rushing for 1,000 yards. But I could not have accomplished this without my teammates. I have a great offensive line and our fullback, Karl Kincel, is an outstanding blocker."

He talked about what it takes to excel as a tailback in high school football. "It takes a lot of hard work and perseverance. You also need to be a leader on and off the field."

Cristian said he has worked hard during the COVID-19 pandemic. "I concentrated more on my studies and worked a lot." The senior scholar-athlete maintains an academic average in the mid 90s and works at Schautz Stadium, Dunmore.

He is vice president of the Health Careers Club at Dunmore.

"I want to play football at the college level, hopefully Division I," he said.

"My goal is to be successful in life."

Cristian enjoys listening to music in his spare time and would like to see Lil' Wayne in concert.

The senior football standout said he will play basketball for the first time in his high school career this year.

He will also participate in track and field for the first time since eighth grade.

"Why not?" he said. "It is good to be active during these times. It gives me something to do and work hard to accomplish."

Cristian is more than enjoying his time at Dunmore High School. "I would not trade it for anything else in the world," he said. "No doubt. We always look at the bright side here."

District 2 champion Dunmore stomps over Riverside 57-15

By Steve Svetovich

A potent running attack led by Cristian Buckley and Karl Kincel powered Dunmore to a 57-15 win over Riverside, Friday, October 30, at home.

The win gave the Bucks a final 3-2 regular season record under second year head football coach Kevin McHale. A district title and trip to the state playoffs was secured the following day.

Lackawanna Trail's 34-19 loss to Old Forge, Saturday, October 31, elevated Dunmore to District 2 Class 2A champion and a state playoff game for the Bucks.

Buckley, quick, explosive and shifty, rambled for 208 yards on 18 carries, including a 66-yard touchdown burst with 29 seconds left in the first half to break a 15-15 tie.

It was the talented senior's third game over 200 yards rushing and moved his season total to over 1,000 yards on the ground in only five games.

Buckley, hoping to play college football on the Division I level, has over 3,000 career rushing yards at Dunmore.

Fullback Kincel added to the brutal running attack with 101 yards rushing, including two touchdowns. He scored a touchdown on a 68-yard sprint in the second quarter and added another tally on a four-yard burst in the third quarter.

"Riverside is a good football team with an excellent quarterback," said Dunmore head coach McHale. "We got off to a slow start, but gained some momentum in the second quarter."

"From that point on we played well in all three phases, offense, defense, special teams."

"We are very proud that our kids have been able to capture our seventh straight District 2 championship."

The Bucks totaled 338 yards on the ground behind a dominant offensive line.

Dunmore rallied from an early 15-0 deficit to score 57 unanswered points.

Riverside senior quarterback Johnny Gilchrist hit freshman Reese Gaughan with a 12-yard touchdown pass with 8:08 left in the first quarter. The extra point kick gave Riverside an early 7-0 lead over Dunmore.

A two-yard Gilchrist touchdown plunge followed by a two-point conversion on a pass play gave Riverside a 15-0 lead with 10:11 left in the second quarter.

Gilchrist completed 20-of-37 passes for 350 yards, 263 in the first half, for Riverside.

Trailing 15-0, Dunmore scored its first touchdown with 9:08 left in the second quarter on a Thomas Bowen one-yard plunge. Peyton Badyrka booted the extra point.

With the Vikings up 15-7, Riverside was about to force a Dunmore punt with just over four minutes left in the half. However, a roughing the punter penalty against the Vikings, gave Dunmore a break and a first down.

Kincel took advantage by breaking a tackle and scampering to the left sideline for a 68-yard touchdown run. Buckley then ran into the end zone for the two-point conversion and the game was tied, 15-15, with 4:05 left in the first half.

Senior standout Buckley bolted for his 66-yard go-ahead touchdown run with 29 seconds left in the first half. The two-point conversion run failed, but the Bucks had a 21-15 lead at the half.

A Bowen one-yard run followed by Buckley's two-point conversion run gave Dunmore a 29-15 lead with 10:33 left in the third quarter. Danny Pigga's 14-yard bolt followed by Badyrka's extra point kick gave the Bucks a 36-15 lead with 5:59 left in the third quarter. Kincel's four-yard burst followed by Badyrka's PAT gave Dunmore a 43-15 lead with 2:12 left in the third quarter.

A David Reilly 65-yard interception return followed by Badyrka's extra point kick gave Dunmore a 50-15 lead with 11:45 left in the fourth quarter.

Liam Crolly's 22-yard gallop followed by the always reliable Badyrka's extra point kick gave the Bucks a 57-15 advantage with 2:46 left in the contest.

The Bucks defense tightened up in the second half against Riverside stalwart signal caller Gilchrist. Bucks senior Dom Temperino, always clutch, sacked Gilchrist twice and Kincel added another forcing a desperation throw leading to Reilly's 65-yard touchdown dash on his interception return.

Kincel, a tough two-way performer, showed no effects from a hand injury he suffered early in the season.

Student provides selfless service to family during pandemic

The tradition of younger family members caring for their elderly relatives, while not exclusive to Italians, is nevertheless particularly prevalent in the Italian culture. One example is the devotion of a local student to his grandparents during the challenging circumstances of the COVID-19 pandemic.

Antonio Pugliese, a 2020 graduate of West Scranton High School and now a freshman at Penn State Scranton, has put himself in virtual quarantine to help care for his paternal grandparents Clare and Nick Pugliese of Dunmore, especially aiding his grandmother tend to the needs of her husband, who since 2006 has faced significant health issues that require near constant attention.

Since the pandemic hit in March, Antonio has spent countless hours in his grandparents' home and has refrained from any gatherings, including activities associated with his senior year, to limit interaction with other people and his chances of contracting the virus and passing it to his vulnerable grandparents.

"I had to stay disciplined to make sure I was not bringing the virus into their home," Antonio explained. "What keeps me vigilant and what kept me okay with missing my final high school memories, while many people my age take their chances with the pandemic, is the thought that my time with my grandparents is much more limited and valuable than the time I could spend with people my age for the rest of my life."

"My grandmother has worked more than enough throughout her life, and the work hasn't stopped for her and becomes more difficult every day. So, even in the midst of starting my college career online, I try to do what I can to ease the burden my grandmother carries."

Family is the most important part of his life, Antonio added, and he feels "lucky and grateful to have four loving grandparents who taught me through their life stories the importance of working hard and enjoying the simple things in life."

Antonio, the son of John and Rosanna Pugliese of Scranton, was one of six high school students to receive the 2020 Brian Piccolo Scholarship Awards from the Scranton Chapter of UNICO National, the nation's largest Italian-American service organization.

ship Award from the Scranton Chapter of UNICO National, the nation's largest Italian-American service organization.

The award honors students who have displayed the same qualities and characteristics of Brian Piccolo, the professional football player who battled cancer before succumbing to the disease at age 26. Piccolo exhibited determination, hard work, integrity, leadership, courage, loyalty, friendship, teamwork, dedication, sense of humor, anti-bias, strength, faith, goodwill and courage in the face of adversity.

Coincidentally, Antonio's service to his family mirrors that of his grandfather Nick, who many years ago exhibited similar devotion and experienced challenges when his mother was facing the end of her life in Italy.

UNICO Scranton Chapter President Gail Mason Cicerini discovered the story when she met David Passeri, a fellow traveler on a tour of Italy. Gail noticed a beautiful gold medal that Dave was wearing, and he explained that it was a gift from a Nick Pugliese - a gift of gratitude.

David and Nick worked at the Golo Shoe Factory in Dunmore owned by Arthur Samuels, whose son Lee and his wife Frances are members of the UNICO Scranton Chapter. As Nick's mother's health declined, he asked the foreman for time off so he could visit her in Calabria, Italy, from where he had migrated in 1961.

The foreman refused, but David Passeri was the plant supervisor and he made the compassionate decision to allow Nick to go. Nick was able to spend time with his mother, and having seen her son, she spent her final days in peace.

Following his retirement from the Golo plant in 1970, Nick established Nick's Shoe Repair on East Drinker Street in Dunmore and worked there part-time for 15 years while also holding a full-time job at a trucking company loading dock to support his family.

After Nick had to leave the shop for health reasons, his son John took over the shop on a part-time basis, with help from his sons Antonio and Nicola, a junior at Penn State Main Campus. Nick's Shoe Repair remains open Wednesdays and Saturdays.

Across the years and across generations, the Pugliese story typifies how families can care for each other under all sorts of challenges and circumstances.

Initiated in 2012 by the Keystone Chapter UNICO National, and with the assistance of the County Commissioners, this has been an annual acknowledgement every year since. Local Italian organizations are invited each year to participate.

This year, County Commissioner Chris Chermak was present, along with representation by several local Italian American organizations.

Psy Chi chapter receives award

Marywood University recently received notification from Psi Chi, the International Honor Society in Psychology, that its campus chapter of the organization won the 2019-2020 Psi Chi Model Chapter award.

In recognition of time and effort that went into meeting the criteria for this award, Marywood University's Psi Chi Chapter will receive a monetary award and a custom certificate.

Psi Chi's Board of Directors and Central Office staff chose only 23 chapters to achieve the Model Chapter status this year from nearly 1,200 chapters.

As a recipient of the Model Chapter Award, Marywood University's Psi Chi Chapter is eligible to apply for the Ruth Hubbard Cousins Chapter Award, named for Ruth Hubbard Cousins, who ran Psi Chi for 33 years and is responsible for the organization existing as it is today; and the Florence L. Denmark Faculty Advisor Award, that recognizes and awards one faculty advisor who exhibits enthusiasm for and commitment to students, psychology, and Psi Chi's purpose.

The Scranton Cultural Center at the Masonic Temple received an $8,000 Community Needs Grant from the Scranton Area Community Foundation to assist with repairs to the Harry & Jeanette Weinberg Theatre. The emergency repairs, which were completed in January, addressed a drainage issue within the building's original 1930s plumbing system that caused damage to the theatre walls. As a result, a portion of the ornate plaster cornice began to deteriorate. Temporary plumbing repairs were completed to divert the water appropriately, the damaged plaster cornice was removed and covered, and the wall was painted. Plans are underway for a complete restoration of the theatre within the next five to six years. Shown from left are: Betsy McGrath Ardizoni of Dunmore, SCC Development Director, and Jason Helman, SCC Business Manager in the Harry & Jeanette Weinberg Theatre.

Saint Joseph's Center's Employees of the Month!

Sister Maryalice Jacquinot recently announced that Tim McGrane was named Employee of the Month for September, 2020. When he applied to Saint Joseph's Center four years ago for the position of Staff Development Manager, he was drawn to the Center because it was not only Human Services but a religious organization. In his position as Director of Human Resources, Tim is responsible for planning, organizing and developing a comprehensive human resources program. He administers uniform, non-discriminatory employment policies and serves as the employee advocate in the best interest of Saint Joseph's Center. Tim also directs all recruitment and retention activities and the compensation and benefit plans. Tim's favorite part of his job is when he is able to interact with the staff who are providing the care and support to the residents and participants in the various Saint Joseph's Center programs whether through Orientation, DSP Career Ladder, Wellness Programs, Health Fair or the many other opportunities. He noted, "I have been awed and inspired by the participants in the DSP Career Ladder who are so committed to growth in their roles as DSP's. The secret weapon of any outstanding organization is its employees and our goal in HR is to support them, develop them, and try to make their lives a little easier as they work to fulfill the mission of Saint Joseph's Center," Tim stated. In October Tim and his wife, DeAnna, celebrated 20 years of marriage. They now have four wonderful children, and they live at Newton Lake in Greenfield Township.

Sister Maryalice Jacquinot recently announced that Linda Leff was named Employee of the Month for October. As a college sophomore she worked at a summer camp for people with special needs. This experience led to a lifetime of different positions but always in service to others. During her first 10 years with Saint Joseph's Center she was a Program Specialist in Community Living Arrangements. In this role, she enjoyed working with multiple houses, staff and residents. Retiring in 2014, she was out for a short time when she accepted a part-time position at the Center as a Community Support Professional. This role allows her to work with clients on an individual basis. She stated, "The clients I work with are each unique with a wide variety of skills and needs. Stepping into another person's life, to view their perspective and navigate hurdles with them, is both a challenge and a blessing. These are learning experiences that continue to inspire me on a daily basis, and I feel I receive far more than I give." The primary function of the Community Support Professional is to meet specific needs, as expressed by individuals and their families, in their home/community setting. Another important responsibility is to implement the specific Individual Support Plan outcomes as outlined by the individual's program team. This ensures that the goals for each person are being monitored and reported on a regular basis. When asked about a favorite experience, Linda shared, "I have one client who, before our time together ends, invariably turns to me, smiles and says one word, 'Happy.'" She continued, "Isn't that what it is all about?" Linda comes from a large family with six siblings. She resides in Dunmore with her best buddy, "Mac," a small mixed breed dog with a big personality.

At This Time of Thanksgiving.

Saint Joseph's Center is grateful to all employees for their dedication to the Saint Joseph's mission that helps others to reach their God-given potential. Our Direct Support Professionals shown in these photos were recently recognized for their dedication to serving the individuals entrusted to our care. Our gratitude also extends to individuals and businesses that support our ministry throughout the year. May God bless all of you!

Marywood plans live-steamed concert

Singer-songwriter Jesse McCartney will take the stage at a private concert for Marywood University students. The live-streamed "Winter Concert" will take place on Saturday, Dec. 5, at 7 p.m.

Jesse McCartney has had the kind of career that most young artists dream for themselves. Ask the New York-born artist to recall some of the highlights and he'll tell you about performing for two U.S. Presidents (Barack Obama and George W. Bush), playing to thousands of devoted fans in Tokyo, where he witnessed the non-English-speaking audience sing along to every word, and meeting his musical heroes Stevie Wonder and Craig David.

All that was done before the release of his 2018 single, "Better with You," his first new music since "In Technicolor," his well-received 2014 album (among SPIN's top 20 pop albums).

A turning point from boy-band pop star to serious working artist began when McCartney co-wrote the Grammy Award-winning single, "Bleeding Love," with Ryan Tedder, performed by Leona Lewis.

An International mega-hit, "Bleeding Love" was Grammy-nominated for Record of the Year, reached #1 in 35 countries, and became the best-selling single of 2008 worldwide. It has racked 360 million streams on Spotify.

McCartney is excited that his fans have come along for the ride with his singles, "Better with You" and "Wasted," released in 2018.

"It's nice to be able to talk about things that the fans are also going through, he said. "I think they feel connected to me because we did basically grow up together. When I was 16, they were in high school with braces on just like me, and now here we are—they're playing my song at their wedding."

In 2019, after touring the U.S. and Asia, Jesse is now back in the studio working on a new project.

For information about the "Winter Concert" featuring Jesse McCartney contact Michael Kalage, director of student engagement, at mkalage@marywood.edu, or call (570) 340-6015.

Cemetery tour successful sponsored and decorated a mausoleum or gravesite with harvest decor.

Due to a sizable donation of fall flowers by the Dollar Store, 30 bouquets of flowers were assembled and laid at the gravesites of 30 Civil War soldiers buried in the Civil War section of the cemetery.

The Dearly Departed Players were also assisted by Dunmore Mayor Timothy Burke and the Dunmore Police Department. Gertrude Hawk Chocolates and PS Advertising also contributed to the tour. As always, Sam Quinn and the employees of the Dunmore Cemetery did a top notch job with the maintenance of the cemetery grounds.

Spaced throughout the cemetery, the Dearly Departed Players assisted the procession through the cemetery. Each Player reported numerous positive comments and thank you's from the public for continuing the annual event. The Players also reported that some tour attendees got back in line immediately following their first trip through the cemetery to take the tour again.

Suggested tour admission was the donation of non-perishable food items for Feed-a-Friend. At the end of the tour Players reported that almost every collection barrel was overflowing with donations.

Tour director Julie Esty stated, "We adapted, the public adapted. It worked well and it was a joy to see everyone. Good things happen in the cemetery! We will see everyone again in 2021!"
