Coach Kevin McHale has high hopes for the Bucks

By Steve Svetovich

The Dunmore Bucks finished a deceiving 4-7 last season and for the first time in eight years did not capture the District 2 Class 2A title. Dunmore lost four of their final five games by an average of 7.3 points.

However, Dunmore head football coach Kevin McHale knows he had a much better than 4-7 team and has high hopes for the Bucks this season.

The Bucks lost to Lackawanna Trail last season in the district title game, a contest the team led into the fourth quarter.

"We had the whole off-season to prepare," said McHale, now in his fourth season as head Dunmore football coach following the retirement of the legendary Jack HENZES. "We want to prepare for every game one game at a time.

"I have a very good feeling about our team. Our seniors are a very selfless group. They are great teammates while taking on a bigger role. The team is their first priority. We can make a great run this year.

"It all comes down to our offensive line. We will go as far as our offensive line goes. We feel there is experience in all departments offensively for us. We have guys who can run the ball. We are strong at wideout."

Coach McHale was an assistant for 16 years under HENZES before taking over the helm. He has a nice group of highly competent assistant coaches that include Michael Perry, Mike Barrett, Damon Bowen, Jack Miles and Mike Burke. Volunteer assistants include Leonard Burke, Dave Rebar, Rocco LaCapro, Joe Crotti, Al Karaffa, James McHale and Al Miller.

Junior Thomas Bowen will be in his third season as starting quarterback. "He's looking very good in practice and has a couple of solid years of experience under his belt. We're excited about that. He's become a leader. His teammates look up to him. He's going to try to take his game a step further this year."

Bowen completed 54 of 134 passes for 766 yards and five touchdowns. In two seasons, he has 1,170 passing yards for eight touchdowns. Nico Ruggiero, known for his fire and toughness, is a key returning running back. He led the team with 525 yards rushing and six touchdowns. Ruggiero also played wide receiver and totaled 14 receptions for 209 yards. He earned honorable mention from the Lackawanna Football Conference Division III coaches.

"Nico is a great leader," said coach McHale. "He had a lot of carries and scored some touchdowns for us last year. He showed a lot of durability and we rely on him for big plays."

Danny Pigga added 397 yards and three touchdowns rushing.

Junior Jake Hickey totaled 175 yards on the ground. Patrick Pucil-owski also was a ball carrier at running back.

Receiver Domenic DeSando, a junior, is back for the Bucks. He had eight catches for 139 yards last season.

Offensive tackles Nathan Reuther and 5-9, 335-pound Nico Buckley are returning starters. The 6-2, 313-pound Reuther was an honorable mention all-star last season.

The Dunmore defense returns six starters. Junior Brayden Reuther earned first-team all-star honors at defensive end. He had 52 total tackles, with six for a loss.

Linebacker Nick Donvito, a junior, was outstanding with 83 total tackles, including 13 for a loss. He earned honorable mention all-star honors.

Other key offensive performers are senior fullback Joshua Malone, fullback Donvito, senior wide receiver Cole Capocci, Pigga at running back and receiver, junior tight end Brayden Reuther, senior tight end Andy Fazio, senior tight end Pucilowski, senior tackle Nick Pierro, junior tackle Brian Talutto, junior guard Rogan Doherty, junior center Nick Tulio, senior guard Evan Mackowski and running back

Doin' Dunmore

With Steve Svetovich

For more than three decades, former Dunmore football coach Jack HENZES depended on one man to put together weekly films for his players.

Robert Francis Ruddy, who passed away this past February 27 after a four month battle with esophageal cancer, will be forever remembered in Dunmore football lore. He was 71.

Ruddy had a tremendous impact within the Dunmore football community.

Throughout 32 years, he assisted the Dunmore football program in many ways. He was the one man who spent countless hours filming every single Dunmore High School football game from 1983 through 2015.

The amount of time he dedicated to the Dunmore Bucks in unparalleled to a select few other than HENZES himself. And HENZES visits his grave often, never forgetting Ruddy's massive contributions to the Dunmore football program.

Ruddy was simply and appropriately known throughout the Dunmore community as "The Eye of the Bucks."

Ruddy also coached midget football in Dunmore for 10 years and was involved in "Friends of the Bucks."

He was a U.S. Navy veteran serving from 1968 to 1972.

A 1968 graduate of Scranton Technical High School, he moved to Dunmore in 1974 and quickly became involved in the football programs in the community.

He and his wife Mary Lynn had four children: Kerri Ruddy-Archer; Bobb III, Brian and Billy. All three boys played football and ran track for Dunmore.

His daughter, now Kerri Lynn played basketball, ran track and is a member of the Northeastern Chapter of the Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame.

Ruddy worked throughout his life for the post office. He started as a mail carrier and later became a postmaster in Peckville. He retired in 2005. And that just gave him more time to work on films for the Dunmore Bucks football program.

"Coach HENZES used his game films for his weekly Monday night reviews with his players," said his son Billy. "HENZES reviewed all of the game films on that one night every week. It became a big part of his practices and how he prepared for games."

"My dad would also make individual highlight films for each player. He made copies for the kids. Some would use the films to show to potential colleges for scholarship offers. He started doing the video taping for Friends of the Bucks and it just went on from there. It became his passion."

"My dad loved the football camaraderie with the players, coaches and fans. He just loved football, especially the Dunmore Bucks. He did the filming before 1983 a few times, but then it became a regular thing. Coach HENZES and the team really depended on him."

His brother-in-law Walter Evans did commentary on the Dunmore Bucks from 1983 to 2014, so the two often worked hand in hand in different capacities helping the team.

Ruddy videotaped a total of 382 games for the Dunmore football team.

"And this was all before the digital age," his wife said. "He used VHS tapes on the VCR. He put in countless hours over the years with his highlight films and gave out hundreds and hundreds of copies to kids. Plus he worked full time, raised four kids and was at every event for his kids."

"Jack HENZES was devastated when he passed away. He loved my husband. He valued all of those films."

Ruddy is the brother-in-law of Bobby and the late Billy Ruddy, 1986 Dunmore graduates and football standouts. Billy Ruddy died at 19 in 1986 in a tragic traffic accident during a football recruiting trip at Mansfield. Bobby Ruddy, his twin brother, is 55 today.

"My husband was extremely kind and hard-working," his wife said. "He put a lot of time in with filming. And he loved every minute of it."

Holy Cross coach looks for continued improvement

By Steve Svetovich

Holy Cross Crusaders second year football coach Joe Giorgio is looking for big things from his team this season.

The Crusaders finished a respectable 4-7 last season, Giorgio's first as head coach, with a roster half of most teams.

That was a big improvement from the 0-5 record the previous season. Giorgio currently has a roster of only 24 players, but his expectations remain high.

"We definitely expect to be better," said the always positive coach.

"We have a nice team. We only have six seniors, but it's a nice blend of those seniors, most who played three years of football for us, and a pretty athletic group of freshmen and sophomores. It's a really nice mix. We have to stay healthy. If we do that, we will win our share of games."

Coach Giorgio is assisted by Vince Coviello, Jim Talarico, Chris Coviello, Mike Giorgio, Dom Possanza, Jake Gatto and Gene Pane.

Key players on the offensive side include 5-11, 170-pound sophomore quarterback Zack Cornell, senior running backs Freddie Strein and Logan Tierney, senior wide receiver John Jones, freshman wide receiver Aiden Wudarski, senior tight end Bobby Staples, senior 6-0, 270-pound center Pio Tanana, junior guard Zack Minich, 5-10, 260-pound senior guard Andrew Naim, junior tackle Chris Petrucci and sophomore tackle John Elko.

Freshman Leland Wudarski will handle the kicking duties, Freshman Aiden Wudarski will be the punter.

On the defensive side, Tanana and Naim are the tackles. Staples and

Coach Joe Giorgio

Petrucci are the defensive ends. Tierney, Elko, Leland Wudarski and sophomore David Jennings will handle the linebacker duties. Jones is at safety and Aiden Wudarski and freshman Kevin Vincent are the cornerbacks.

Coach Giorgio is confident in his new quarterback, Cornell. "He's a transfer from New York state," he said. "He's looked really good in practice and we're very happy with him."

Coach Giorgio said the running game is solid. "The running game is our team strength," he said. "We have three returning starters on the offensive line plus Logan Tierney in the backfield. We can run with any team in the league."

The confident coach had particular high praise for his prized back, Tierney. "He is just a tough, hard nosed runner," Giorgio said. "He's never satisfied. Logan is a hard nosed kid who week to week always works to get better. He's just tough to bring down. It takes two or three guys to bring him down."

"And defensively, he is all over the field as a linebacker. He is our best player on the field on both ends."

Coach Giorgio said Tanana and Petrucci provide added leadership and experience.

"Tanana is a three year starting center. He is like an extra line coach out on the field for our offense."

"Petrucci has started every game for us since his freshman year. He provides a lot of energy. We expect big things from him."

Giorgio said the defense needs to come up big. "Our front seven are pretty much intact, so we have some experience."

"We have to stop people, That's it."

Holy Cross begins the season with three non conference games against Hanover Area, Holy Redeemer and Mid Valley before a conference home contest against Montrose Saturday, September 17, at 1 p.m.

Scranton Prep strong once again following 11-1 season

By Steve Svetovich

Scranton Prep head football coach Terry Gallagher has enjoyed success during his six years leading the Cavaliers and this year should be no different.

Prep, undefeated during the regular season last year, finished 11-1 in winning the District 2 Class 3A championship. Prep suffered its only loss in the first round of the PIAA playoffs.

"Our team has high expectations," said coach Gallagher who has a 62-10 record in his six years as football coach at Prep. "We want to repeat what we did and go even further in the state playoffs. We played very well against some great competition last season. We expect to do the same this year."

Senior running back London Montgomery, a Penn State commit, rushed for 2,356 of the team's 3,800 plus rushing yards last season. He rushed for 36 touchdowns, including 14 from over 50 yards. He was recruited by 23 NCAA Division I colleges before choosing Penn State.

"He's an incredible talent and an even better person," said coach Gallagher.

"He's a selfless kid who works extraordinarily hard. He had some great leaders as a freshman. He learned from them and now he is a leader. He works at some aspect of his game every off-season to get better. He wants to keep getting better in all aspects of his game."

Montgomery was the Times-Tribune offensive player of the year last season.

Senior Anthony Nicotera did more than his part as an offensive lineman and blocker for Montgomery and the other backs. Now a third year starter, he is receiving interest from Fordham and Bucknell. He is the lone returning starter among the linemen.

At 6-2, 275-pounds, he bench presses 300 pounds, has a squat of 500 pounds, a dead lift of 485 pounds and a clean of 240 pounds to go along with a shuttle run of 4.95 seconds. He was an all-state guard last season.

"He is a no nonsense hard working football player," said coach Gallagher. "He has both a high academic and high football IQ."

Keith Pritchik, Ray Kreseksi, Liam Badick, Nick Letteri, Gino Mazza and Daniel Watters are all seniors who must replace four all-star starters lost to graduation.

Nicotera also plays a key role on the defensive line. He had 30 tackles, including two for a loss and a sack, last season.

Eight starters return on defense. Junior Max Shnipes returns at tackle. He had 54 tackles, with six for a loss and 3.5 sacks to earn honorable mention Lackawanna Football Conference all-star honors last season.

"He's a big, physical, strong and tough kid," said coach Gallagher. "His role will expand this year. He's been playing for us since his freshman year. He is very hard-working in the weight room."

Senior Aiden Colleran, senior Mick O'Malley and Aidan Cullen all return at linebacker.

"O'Malley is a hard working kid who leads by example. He is always trying to get bigger, stronger, faster."

"Colleran is a great kid. He picks up on everything and studies and understands the entire playbook. He is super disciplined and a hard worker."

Colleran earned first-team all-star honors with 88 tackles. O'Malley totaled 101 tackles. Cullen, who missed three games due to injury, had 32 tackles.

Montgomery, a first-team all-star in the secondary, had 37 tackles and broke up six passes.

Jake Gentile had 46 tackles in seven games. Liam Barrett had 35 tackles.

"Our defense has a lot of interchangeable parts," said coach Gallagher. "We need to tackle. Communication is the most important part of it. We have to all be on the same page. If we are not, bad things will happen."

Senior Ray Rinaldi returns as the kicker. Senior Sean Monahan is the punter.

Monahan and sophomore Lewis Paris are competing for the starting quarterback job.

The receivers are Liam Barrett, Tae Weeks, Treyvon Dickey, Louis Pappas and Jake Gentile.

"We are doing a great job offensively in practice," said coach Gallagher. "We have some new guys in the mix. We need to be consistent. We have the talent, speed and size. We just need to finetune details." Sophomore Anthony Rossi and junior Nyeem Gonzales are also expected to see time on the offensive line

Former Broncos coach, Dunmore native Vic Fangio talks football

By Steve Svetovich

Dunmore native Vic Fangio, who recently coached the Denver Broncos for three seasons, was in town this summer talking football.

"It's nice spending time in Dunmore," he said. "I spent a few days back here. It's a great town and I like seeing old friends and family. This is where my roots are."

Fangio's mom Alice, 95, still lives in Dunmore.

Fangio graduated from Dunmore High School in 1976. He was an all-scholastic safety/wide receiver for four years at Dunmore. The Bucks won the Big 11 title in 1973-74-75. Fangio was a big part of those teams.

Defense has always been the name of the game for Fangio.

"Yes, defense, that's it," he said. "That's where my career path took me. Coach Jack Henzes took me there."

"I always wanted to stop people."

Fangio, 64, is a 41-year coaching veteran with 35 seasons of NFL experience.

He was defensive coordinator for 20 of the past 24 seasons at the NFL or college level before becoming head coach of the Denver Broncos where he coached from 2019 through 2021.

Fangio began his NFL career with New Orleans under Jim Mora as the team's linebackers coach from 1986 through 1994 during which time he coached the famed "Dome Patrol," one of the greatest defensive groups of all-time.

He served as Chicago Bears defensive coordinator from 2015 through 2018 after leading defenses for the San Francisco 49ers (2011-2014), Stanford University (2010), Houston Texans (2002-2005), Indianapolis Colts (1999-2001) and Carolina Panthers (1995-1998).

He started his coaching career under Henzes at Dunmore where he was linebackers coach (1979-81) and defensive coordinator (1980-81).

He also served as defensive coordinator at Milford

Academy in Connecticut (1982), was a graduate assistant at North Carolina (1983) and served as defensive assistant for the Philadelphia/Baltimore Stars in the USFL (1984-85).

He was special assistant to the head coach and defensive assistant for the Baltimore Ravens (2006-08) and linebackers coach for the Ravens in 2009.

Fangio was named Associated Press and Pro Football Writer's Association NFL assistant coach of the year in 2018.

Fangio's defenses have consistently been among the most productive in the NFL in a number of categories, including scoring defense, total yards allowed and fewest penalties. His defenses ranked in the top five in yards allowed in eight of the last 13 years while placing in the NFL's top five in fewest points allowed seven times during that time period.

During Fangio's nine seasons with New Orleans, the Saints ranked among the NFL's top five in total defense, scoring defense, sacks and takeaways. The East Stroudsburg graduate led Denver to a 19-30 record during his time as Broncos head coach.

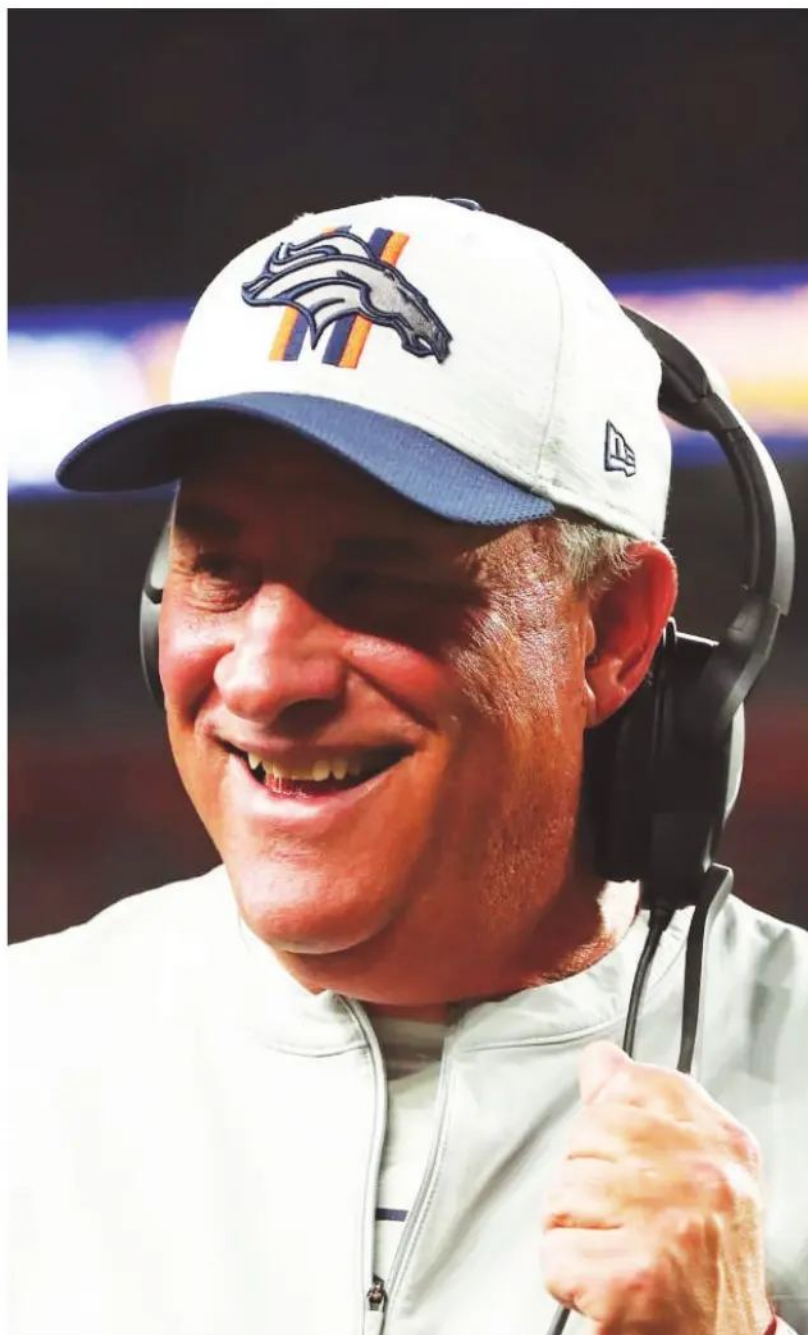

Fangio mentioned the late Sam Mills, Lawrence Taylor, Deion Sanders, Reggie White, Justin Smith, Khalil Mack and Rickey Jackson among the greatest NFL defensive players he has seen. He attended the Pro Football Hall of Fame ceremony in Canton, Ohio last month when the late Mills, who he coached, was inducted.

He named Barry Sanders, Edgarrin James, Frank Gore, and the late Walter Payton among the greatest running backs he has seen.

He named Joe Montana, Peyton Manning, John Elway, Tom Brady, Aaron Rodgers, and Patrick Mahomes among the best NFL quarterbacks he has witnessed.

"Making it to the Super Bowl in 2012 with the San Francisco 49ers was my biggest thrill in the game," he said. "Nothing beats winning."

Fangio talked about getting his first big break in the NFL. "I was coaching under Jim Mora for the Philadelphia Stars in the USFL. He got the head coaching job for the New Orleans Saints and took me with him."

"During the past 36 years or so of coaching, mostly NFL, I've had the opportunity of coaching a lot of very good players."

Fangio said he is still close to Henzes and follows Dunmore football. The Dunmore native currently resides in Florida. "Defense is my game," he said. "I've coached some great defensive players over the years."

And Fangio feels he has more coaching years left on the table. "I am looking to get back into the game. I will see what is out there for me."

"We will see what next year brings. In the meantime, I'll work on my golf game and study football, similar to what a professor does on sabbatical."

Miss Buck Madison Waltz looks for great senior year

By Maureen Hart

Madison Waltz, 18, a senior at Dunmore High School who was named Miss Buck last spring, feels both honored and concerned. Being Miss Buck has always been an honor at Dunmore, but Madison was untested for the title, as has been the case for several years.

Although she was required to do a twirling/marching presentation to qualify for the position, there was no competition.

"I'm afraid twirling is a dying art," Madison explained. "Even now, we don't have any active junior year twirlers. It seems that everybody prefers to be a cheerleader these days."

While being realistic about the situation, Madison points out the positives of twirling.

"I can honestly say that being a twirler has made me a better person," she says proudly. "It teaches so many skills beyond the classroom. You learn to be part of a team, how to present yourself, even how to become a better public speaker."

It all started for Madison nine years ago when her cousin took her to "Bring a Friend" night, an experience which inspired her to begin training with the Double R Twirlettes under Kathleen Mercantili.

"I was originally planning to take up archery," she laughs. "I never planned to be a twirler. Now I am in my sixth season as a twirler at Dunmore."

An only child, she is the daughter of Chris and Renee Waltz of Dunmore, who have always provided encouragement as Madison pursues her activities.

"But my mom is also my biggest critic," she admits. "She notices when I mess up, and encourages me to become even better. You should always try to do your best."

Madison says she pursues twirling for the right reasons. "I am a twirler because I enjoy it, not because I am looking to get attention. Honestly, the skills can seem a little intimidating because you spin so fast and light your batons on fire. By facing those challenges, I believe I am the person I am today because of my twirling experience."

But twirling is not Madison's whole life. At Dunmore High School she is active in many activities, including serving as captain of the Mock Trial Team, and president of both the French Club and Book Club. (When asked, she said her all-time favorite book is Ready, Player One by Ernest Cline, a science fiction novel set in the future and based on games from the 80s. "Sci fi is my favorite genre," she notes.)

GOOD LUCK THIS SEASON!

As Miss Buck, Madison Waltz hopes for best season ever

Madison is also secretary of the Drama Club, where she serves as audio chief. "If microphones break, I gerry rig them backstage," she explains. "And like most everybody else in the club, I help out with sets and props."

She is also an officer of the Health Careers Club, and a member of TACT Club, SAAD Club, Earth Club, Cultures Club, and Chorus.

Outside of school, she is a member of St. Mary's Youth Choir, directed by Liz Sottile. Madison explains, "I want to leave some sort of positive mark on the community."

Her hobbies include archery and sewing. She sews the flags uses on the field and sewed the logo on her Bucks helmet.

She loves football and is a Seattle Seahawks fan. She laughingly reveals, "If I wasn't a twirler, and if my mother let me, I would have played football myself. When I was younger, I used to amaze people because I would call the plays ahead of time when I was watching a game."

With a 3.82 GPA, Madison hopes to pursue a degree in biochemistry at Villanova University. "I've always been a research person, and I'd like to work in pharmaceutical development someday as a way to find cures for medical problems."

She is interested in Villanova because she observes what she describes as "A wonderful, very positive atmosphere there. It seems a lot like Dunmore in a way," she notes.

To explain, she recalls, "When we were younger, we got to go to the pep rallies for various sports at Dunmore, and you could just feel everybody come together. They would play 'Sweet Caroline' and in that moment we were all Dunmoreans, all together. I sense the same atmosphere at Villanova."

Although the past couple of years were "crazy with the COVID pandemic," Madison says her goal now is to make this year her very best.

In her first appearance as Miss Buck, Madison helped celebrate the football team's exciting win over Old Forge last Friday.

"I screamed myself hoarse at the game," she confessed. "The last time we beat Old Forge, I was a freshman!"

She has some solid advice for other students.

"Enjoy your years at Dunmore while you have the opportunity. Don't waste time being cynical," she says. "When you get to your senior year, you might realize that you took this amazing community for granted. You won't get that time back, so make the most of every moment."

Cal Talutto.

Senior Max Hunt is the kicker. Max did a great job for us last year," said coach McHale.

The defensive unit will consist of Fazio, Brayden Reuther, Doherty and Pierro at defensive end; Mac-kowski, Nathen Reuther, Tulio, Brian Talutto and Malone at tackle; Donvito, Pucilowski, Hickey, sophomore Jacob Ramos and senior Anthony Caldorn, a first year player, at linebacker; DeSando, Piga and sophomore Gabe Franick at cornerback; and Capocci, Ruggiero, Cal Talutto, junior Sean Gallagher and sophomore Jack McNeff at safety. Pierro, an All Region selection, is the punter. Gallagher backs him up.

McHale feels there is room to improve defensively. He looks at Donvito and Brayden Reuther as defensive leaders.

"Donvito was our leading tackler. He's a very smart defensive player. As a sophomore, he was one of the best defensive players on the team.

"Brayden Reuther was a first team all league defensive end. He is a great player on the defensive side for us.

"As a whole, I am excited about the defensive side of the ball for us. We have a revamped staff on defense and should see a lot of improvement there."

UPDATE:

Dunmore Bucks beat Old Forge

Bowen also rushed for two touchdowns in the stunning win.

DeSando finished with three touchdowns and 152 yards on six catches. Dunmore played with only 23 players due to the suspensions.
